We are one month closer to motorcycle riding! That's about all I can say for this horrible winter weather we have been having. Let's just get it over with! Bring on the swimming pool, and grass, and mosquitoes!

We did get out on a very cold Saturday and enjoy some chapter member time at Alliger's House of Wings in Sayre. The cold certainly doesn't stop our appetites! We are planning another luncheon on Saturday, February 28 at NOON at the Brunch Barn in Rome, PA. This is a cute little diner that is made over from an old church. There will be plenty of room for them to put some tables together in the middle so we can all be together - so please plan to join us. And let's talk a little bit about the TIME we are going to arrive for this luncheon. I put it in capital letters as NOON. At the Alliger's luncheon I had 1 o'clock written in the newsletter and in the email that followed the Gathering. However, when I sent a reminder for the luncheon I wrote noon, so what happened? Three people listened to the most recent communication and everyone else came an hour later. Thank goodness that the restaurant didn't mind us sitting around and gabbing for a long, long time!!!

At our January Gathering we fine tuned a few of our other upcoming events as well! Check the calendar at the end of this newsletter for all the times. In March we will be getting together for a Chili Party at the Smouse house. In April we will be going to Trout Run for our first ride and a wonderful lunch at the diner there. In May we will have our Training Day in place of our Gathering - it will again be held at the Smouse House with a dish to pass lunch and Gery Kerkeslager providing some more great motorcycle training. And in June we are planning a Progressive Dinner. We will be riding to four different households and have a different course at each location.

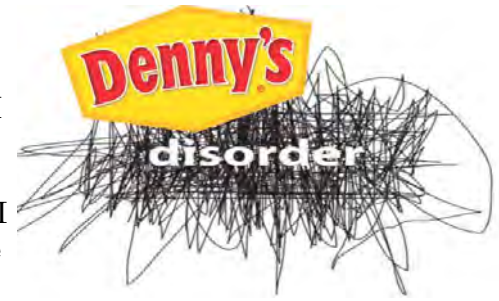

Don't forget our new Challenge of the Year begins April 1st. We have chosen History as our theme this year. Visit an historical marker or a museum for points! Check out the flyer in this newsletter.

Then comes July and our BIG events. First our Gumball Ride/Dice Run is in place of our July Gathering Day. We will be fine tuning details for that very soon. And the weekend after the Gumball is the District Ride-In. The event has been set at Roxbury Camp and Conference Center near Gettysburg. Check out the flyer in this newsletter for all the details. I know many of the members of our chapter no longer have campers, but Ed and I plan to take our camper to this event and rough it! I wonder how many people around the District will also bring campers? But for the rest of you, there are rooms in the Conference Center, and hotels only 5 miles away from the camp.

It's looking like it will be another great year for Endless Mountains Riders! We are looking forward to sharing it with all of you! Hope to see you at the February Gathering!

Happy Valentine's Day !!!

Denny's Disorder

2026! Back years ago, when I was working in the 80's & 90's, the company used to send out retirement benefits statements with dates. I never worried about them as I figured I'd never live this long. Well, here I am, still kicking. This year, I'm anxiously awaiting spring so I can get back on the bike. I don't remember this feeling in year's past. I don't know what's changed. The bike sits in the garage pointed out the door. I'd really love to take her for a ride.

Some people get weird as they get older. Not me, I've always been this way.

Maybe one of the reasons for this feeling is I have not had a chance to take a snowmobile ride yet. My group set up a ride three weeks ago, then it rained. So, we moved it forward a week. Canceled that week too. I don't remember why. Now we have set it up for the last week in January and we got snowfall here in Pennsylvania. We've now moved our trip a day. Should be excellent riding up there, Old Forge, NY.

To everyone that received a book from me for Christmas, they're due back at the library next Friday. Thank you.

Not much to report in January. Started off with our Gathering with a few missing. Set up the schedule for the year. One thing we set up was lunch at Alligers. Good thing we picked Saturday rather than the snowy Sunday we would have ended with. A great turnout with a lot of lively discussions. You can tell we're an old group as we had a couple of conversations about the different medicines we're taking! The food was very good. Alligers is billed as the 'House of Wings'. They have many homemade sauces for their wings. The wings themselves were spectacular. Best I can remember having.

You know it's a cold day when your teeth start chattering and they're still on the nightstand.

Stay warm! Next up is our Gathering in February. Hope to see you there!

I'm sorry, Dennis, but the History Challenge doesn't start until April 1st!!! It's an early April Fools to you!!!

January Chapter Lunch

2026 is off to a great start. We have had our first Gathering and at the end of the month we had 12 members who gathered at Alligers House of Wings for a winter lunch. It's always a great time when this group gets together.
